UNKAL ANSWERS IT.

Several days ago The Advertiser published a letter from an old soldier, that had the following statement in it:

"To R. D. Comer:

"I notice in the papers where you had your legislature to make appropriation for the old soldiers, but it failed to get up as far as High Jackson."

This was an open letter to Gov. Comer, and was designed to be against his present campaign. The Advertiser, instead of trying to give the old soldier some light on the subject, or trying to correct a false statement, printed the letter as campaign dope. It is a fair sample of the Advertiser's campaign methods.

If there's a 16-year-old boy in Alabama who believes that this state has sent out pension money to the soldiers of all the counties and left High Jackson off, his picture should be made and sent in. There isn't an old soldier in Alabama who doesn't know this statement is false and misleading. They all know that they are getting more money now than they did before Comer was governor. They all know that O'Neal promised to give them more, so that they wouldn't be short on the last quarter, and they all know he hasn't made good. They know that instead of the last quarter being short, by about half, as it was under Comer, that it is entirely wiped out, and that the third quarter is trimmed occasionally.

Now the Advertiser-O'Neal administration would have you believe that Old Comer did it all. They dare not go to the records at the capital and publish the amounts by years, paid old soldiers during Jeff's administration, and then compare that with Comer's administration. They know what every pensioner in Alabama knows, that Comer's administration gave them more money than they have ever had before.

Every old soldier in the state will tell you that Comer did right when he paid them quarterly instead of annually. Why wait for twelve months, when the money is lying idle, to draw their pensions, when it could be paid out quarterly? And yet, the Advertiser, and its chosen for governor, the present Governor O'Neal, would try to make the voters believe that it was an outrage to pay them quarterly instead of annually.

The Advertiser didn't attempt to answer The Eagle's comment on the old soldier. It turned back to the five of the paper and printed a labored attempt by its governor, wherein he tried hard to excuse his administration and puts Comer's in bad light. The governor, like the Advertiser, only printed that part of the report that suited him, and left out the rest. Instead of giving the full truth and giving it in plain language, it is proposed that we should print what it needed, and printed a column of his anti-Comer's anaesthesia.

The voters of Alabama are getting tired of these candidates who promise to improve things, and fail. Comer's record will stand the light of publicity. Turn it on—the more light you turn on, the better his record will show. Ask the old soldiers; ask the school teachers, and the patrons of the schools, they will tell you that school conditions have been improved more under Comer's administration than under any other. Alabama will repudiate the efforts of the whiskey interests, and the railroad interests, to run this state. It wants to move the capital back where it belongs, from Louisville to Montgomery.

THIS HOUSTON COUNTY VOTE.

Houston county polled 2,150 votes in the April primary for gov. ernor. Of this number, Henderson got 1,216; Comer, 838; Kolb, 492; Beed, 604.

In the May primary, 2500 votes will be as many as can be expected. It depends upon weather conditions as to whether that number will turn out. There may not be more than 2000 votes polled in this county.

So far, we don't know even one man who voted for Beed, who will vote for Henderson. The Beed men in this county, are for Comer second. Out of the Kolb vote, there is no telling where it will go, but there is no reason to expect that Henderson will get more than half, if he does that well.

Over in Henry county, a hot Kolb man, Mr. C. B. Searey, is going to speak for Comer.

But any way you figure it, it will be close in Houston county. A lead of 200 will be a big lead, as it stands now. Of course, things may be stirred up some, when the paid speakers get in the field. But when one side starts something, the other will start something. And the Comer leaders are anxious to compare records. They are not burdened with the O'Neal influence, and the Charles Lewis influence, and the L. & N. railroad influence. They only have the plain people behind them, who are not asking any special favors, or promising any.

It is high time the affairs of the state be put back into the hands of the people.

It is high time some of the O'Neal extravagance be stopped. His administration is costing $3,555 a day more than Comer's, and Henderson would mean a perpetuation of the present administration.

The tax payers paid $108,392.00 a month more under the present administration than they did under Comer. Still, the anti-Comer papers and people tell you Comer's was an extravagant administration. Don't listen at them—get the records and compare them.

THE BACK TAX COMMISSION.

Old Comer favors abolishing the back tax commission of every county in the state.

Old Comer's enemies will tell you he's the daddy of the back tax commission laws.

They fail to tell you that this law was made operative as early as January, 1902, while Old Comer didn't become governor till 1907—five years later. And, yet, they will tell you he's responsible for it. Might as well make him personally responsible for the swiping of Billie Patterson across the head.

Comer stands for the people. He wants them to rule, and have a say-so in running the state. He doesn't want the people to have to send him to Louisville, Ky, and ask Charles Lewis every time a piece of legislation is to be proposed. He's for nearly everything O'Neal and The Advertiser's against. He's against nearly everything they are for. That's a pretty safe proposition. When you are voting against them, you are doing fairly well, here in Alabama. They are bound up by the big interests outside of Alabama.

Do you think the "railroad rate" railroad commission gave back to question was settled right when the the railroad several millions of dollars that belonged to the people?

Leon McCord and Frank Julian can tell you that the people didn't think so. They are left out. Mr. Henderson, the head of the railroad commission, shouldn't have allowed any such compromise, even if Governor O'Neal did want it done.

WICKSBURG NEWS

After several years' work a consolidated school has been organized here in the Panhandle of the county. Many people have long seen the need of this in this section of the county.

As soon as our children pass the 7th grade examination they must be sent to a high school or their education neglected. Thus the agitation of this question led to the question of consolidation which has been an interesting theme for several years.

Recently J. J. Collins called for a school meeting at his school house in District One. They again discussed the question of consolidation, both pro and con, with the result that each one determined to work for consolidation, and were successful. Districts one and two and three have thus been consolidated. The building will be placed near the center of the consolidated district and for this purpose a plot of 2 acres of land has been purchased about a mile north of town, on which they propose to build a handsome state-aid building.

It is proposed to unite the funds of the three schools using only 1st and 2nd grade teachers, and have at least four or five teachers in the school as it has generally required five teachers to teach the three schools.

It is also intended to add a grade each year to the school, so, for instance, the school next year will only have 8 grades. But in four years we shall have eleven grades then. All are intensely interested in this school, which shall be a Rural High School indeed.

Elder W. A. Wade of Donaldsonville, La., has been visiting friends near town.

B. T. Rister, J. J. Collins and Miss Little Rister have been standing the state examination in Geneva this week. Mr. Rister and Miss Rister stood for a second grade certificate, while Mr. Collins stood for a first grade certificate.

Rev. E. C. Campbell of Graceville, has been visiting relatives near town.

J. L. Collins went down to Hartford Thursday.

Sunday will be the all day slug at Goodwater in the Sacred Harp. All are invited to come and bring their books.

"I have taken your trial treatment and it has done me wonders of good. I had four attacks of what the doctor called gall stone colic before I took your treatment, and I have not had one since." J. W. Tidwell, R. F. D., No. 2, Jasper, Ala. These statements show just how quickly you may expect results from Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. It clears out the mucoid and catarrhal accretions and removes poisonous matter naturally. Many declare that they have been saved from operations; many are sure it has saved their lives.

Doctors Fearful Lung Trouble, Resisted to Health by Vinol.

The medical profession does not believe that lung troubles are inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to them.

Mrs. Kate Heckman, Springfield, Ohio, says: "A few years ago I was in a very bad run-down condition, and the physician told me I had consumption. I tried another physician, and he told me I had ulcers on my right lung. I quit the physician and started on 'Vinol.' Today I am perfectly healthy, and that is why I recommend 'Vinol.'"
